

Sinclair Broadcasting's plans to air the anti-Kerry piece are blatantly slanted and an abuse of their privilege in holding a broadcast license. Not only is the program anti-Kerry, but it is also factually questionable, and potentially influential in a misleading way in this crucial time.

If Bush is to win, let him do so on his own merits -- not through fabrications of Kerry's record being put on the air by a broadcaster abusing its FCC-granted privileges.